ADORATION

To grow closer to our Lord, deepen our faith and strengthen our community, St. Charles Church hosts Eucharistic Adoration starting Sunday at 1 p.m. until the following Saturday at 8 a.m., every week! We are very blessed to have faithful adorers who dedicate their time on a weekly basis to ensure Jesus is exposed and never left alone. The generosity of our adorers also allows others to visit Jesus in the chapel in their time of need.

BENEDICTINE OBLATES

What is an oblate? A person that has a desire to be connected in some way with the community life of the Benedictines at St. Meinrad. Over time, men and women outside the monasteries wanted to be affiliated with the work and prayer of the monks and nuns. But these individuals were married, had family obligations and employment. They lived in the secular world, but offered themselves to God, dedicating their lives to the guidance of the Rule of St. Benedict. As time passed and society continued to change and progress, one thing didn't change — the value and wisdom found in the holy Rule. Thousands of oblates worldwide continue to find inspiration and spiritual fulfillment as they follow the treasure of the Rule of St. Benedict. Meetings are the first Thursday of the month!

UGANDA MISSION

COVE Alliance originated as the dream of Fr. Hilary Muheezangango, and has become a growing network of caring, gifted people reaching out to orphaned and disadvantaged children in Uganda. He ministered to hundreds of orphaned youths who had no one caring for them. "Now the remnants of the war became the victims of HIV/AIDS," reported Fr. Hilary. "Pretty much HIV/AIDS has swept the generation that survived the war, leaving many of the children orphans." COVE Alliance, a nonprofit organization serving orphaned and vulnerable children in central Uganda, was founded. Each year, Fr. Tom Kovatch leads a group to visit St. Jerome Primary School delivering new shoes to 270 students, visit classrooms, work in the clinic and do various missionary works, along with spending time with the children who range in age from 6-16. The missionary groups form in August and travel the following June/July. Anyone who has experienced this mission trip falls in love with the children and the mission. As well, sponsors for the students are needed each year. The cost is $960 per year.

The shelter is currently recruiting volunteers and accepting donations. We welcome your participation as volunteer, donor or community partner in a collaborative effort that is strengthened by the whole community's involvement. The Interfaith Emergency Winter Shelter depends largely on volunteers to keep its doors open. All volunteers must attend training prior to volunteering. Volunteers must be 18 years or older, or must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian while volunteering. People who are less than 18 years old may volunteer for the set-up shifts only. Individual training sessions can easily be scheduled. The shelter opens in early November and closes after the night of March 31.
